Texas Veterans Commission to Host a Women Veterans Resource Seminar

SAN ANTONIO – The Texas Veterans Commission is conducting a Women Veterans Resource Seminar on July 28 from 2:30 p.m. to 4:30 p.m. The event will be held at Tri Point, 3233 N. Saint Mary's Street, San Antonio, Texas 78212.

The seminar is open to all women veterans, active duty women, and their families. Women veterans will be introduced to people, resources, and opportunities available to them and their families that provide them with tools and information within the Greater San Antonio area.

“Women veterans are an invaluable asset to our state, and we want to make sure they know of all the benefits to which they are entitled,” said Thomas Palladino, the Texas Veterans Commission Executive Director. “This seminar will bring together those resources so women veterans can find the help they need.”

Event participants will receive information about the following areas:

- Greater San Antonio area programs & services information and assistance
- Benefits, medical care, and housing assistance available through the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs
- Texas Veterans Commission services: employment and education assistance, claims filing and appeals, Family Employment Coordinator Assistance (FEAC), and women veterans resources

Space for the seminar is limited. Those wishing to participate are strongly urged to register in advance at the Texas Veterans Commission website:
